We all have the ability to create change in the lives of people impacted by cancer by funding cancer research. Together, with your support, it's all of us against cancer.

The official date for Daffodil Day this year is Thursday 22 August 2024, but you can get involved any time throughout the month of August.

Fundraising Ideas.

If you're looking for some inspiration as to how you can fundraise for this year's Daffodil Day, we have got you covered:

- Why not host a Yellow Morning Tea? Ask your guests to bring foods that are yellow only. Think pineapple and cheese sticks, yellow fruit platters, popcorn, banana muffins, lemon biscuits... The yellow possibilities are endless!
- Ask your colleagues to Wear Yellow at the office for the day.
- Take the plunge and join the Daffodil Day Dip anytime in August via our Facebook.
- Ask your workplace to double your donations and match every dollar you raise!

Donate online.

By donating to Daffodil Day, you're helping to create change for people affected by cancer. Last year, Cancer Council Australia raised over $2.5million to support lifesaving research. Let's make this year an even bigger success. Donate today.
